

Schedule of events

Please note: Not all events are open to all attendees. Snacks will be provided for those that missed the luncheon registration deadline.

Registration

8:00-9:00 2nd Floor information desk (near 205 and 211)
Breakfast for Presenters- Room 211.

Biological and Social Environments (Room 205)

Convener: Bethany Baxter

9:00-9:15 Bethany Baxter- An oral history of the American chestnut in southern Appalachia
9:20-9:35 Mark Wetherington- The curse of civilization: Landscape and culture in southeastern Kentucky 1750-2009
9:40-9:55 Break

Health Attitudes and Disparities (Room 211)

Convener: Tina Kruger

9:00- 9:15 Tina Kruger- Rural Appalachians' attitudes toward physical activity and community-based interventions
9:20-9:35 Daniel Saman- Illustrating oral health disparities in Kentucky via cartograms
9:40-9:55 Angela Mitchell- Parental attitudes and the HPV vaccine: Information from a sample of parents utilizing health department services in an Appalachian county
9:55-10:00 Break

Representations & Perceptions of Appalachia (Room 205)

Convener: Erin Pullen

10:00-10:15 Rebecca Tucker- What's in a name?
10:20-10:35 Lisa Hill- Affect of Appalachian accent on rehabilitation hiring official's perceptions: A language attitude study
10:40-10:55 Elizabeth New- Hillbillies in cyberspace: Talking back to Diane Sawyer and 20/20s 'Children of the Mountains'

Socio-Agricultural Systems (Room 211)

Convener: Lisa Conley

10:00-10:15 T. Garrett Graddy- Revaluing local knowledge in Southern Appalachia via heirloom seeds
10:20-10:35 Lisa Conley- Talking food: Home food preservation practitioners in eastern Kentucky
10:40-10:55 Christina Buckner- "Carcinogenic" Communities: Locating the production of a stigmatized commodity in a global economy
10:55-11:00 Break

Topics in Coal Mining (Room 205)

Convener: Julie Shepherd-Powell

11:00-11:15 Julie Shepherd-Powell- "[Just] because things is legal, it don't make them right": Natural Resource Corruption in the Fight Against a Coal-Fired Power Plant in Southwest Virginia
11:20-11:35 Erin Pullen- Kentucky Mountain Justice: A qualitative case study
11:40-11:55 Jason Koutsunis- The most affected: MTR from the worker's perspective

Local and Global Economy (Room 211)

Convener: Amanda Fickey

11:00-11:15 Amanda Fickey- "Our model wants to be good and fair to the community": Exploring the concept of moral economy in eastern Kentucky
11:20-11:35 HP Lovelace- Unlearning poverty in central Appalachia
11:40-11:55 Justin Blevins- Survey of systems of inequality in Appalachian schools

Luncheon

12:00-1:00pm Small ballroom, Student Center (above the Starbucks, go straight, then turn left). Please be seated quietly for keynote address and music. Vegetarians, place your green placard on your plate to assist catering in delivering your correct meal.
12:00-12:30 Keynote by Dr. Nancy Schoenberg- Deconstructing Fatalism: Lessons from Appalachian Case Studies
12:30-1:00 Music by Dr. Ron Pen, Kevin Kehrberg, and Will Bacon

Awards and Wrap Up

1:00-2:00 Awards for best papers, reflections, Q&A, and wrap up.

A special thanks to the sponsors who made this event possible:

UK Appalachian Center

Student Government Association

Department of Sociology

Department of Geography

Department of Anthropology

College of Communications and Information Studies

Department of Kinesiology and Health Promotion

College of Law.

Thank you.

The Appalachian Research Community Presents:
Appalachian Research Symposium
2010

Saturday, February 20, 2010
8am-2pm
UK Student Center

